3. EXECUTION.

a. Concept of Operations.

(1) The theater reorganization disestablishes the Far East Command and USAFFE and creates command relationships indicated by Annexes B, C and D.

(2) Primary impact on USARYIS/IX Corps:

(a) This command becomes a major subordinate command of USARPAC.

(b) The logistical base for the present FEC area remains in Japan. Service support is provided this command by technical service units in Japan which are assigned to Eighth Army, a collateral headquarters to USARYIS/IX Corps.

(3) CG, USARYIS/IX Corps becomes High Commissioner of the Ryukyu Islands on 4 July 57 in accordance with Presidential Executive Order of 5 June 1957. USCAR continues to be the operating agency for CA/MG activities in the Ryukyus.

(4) Units affected by the reorganization:

(a) 663d FA Bn is assigned to Eighth Army but remains on Okinawa and is attached to USARYIS/IX Corps for administrative, logistical and training support.

(b) US Army Special Operations Detachment moves from Japan and Hawaii to Okinawa and is attached to USARYIS/IX Corps for administrative and logistical support.

b. 663d FA Bn (280mm Gun).

(1) Be prepared to provide general support for ground defense of Okinawa.

(2) Be prepared for employment as two atomic-capable fire units or as individual batteries, able to function for sustained periods in widely separated areas.

(3) Be prepared to initiate outloading, with minimum notice, to KOREA or such other PACOM areas as directed.

c. US Army Special Operations Detachment.

(1) Provide local security for installations and activities.

(2) Prepare for employment as directed by competent authority.

d. Coordinating Instructions.

(1) Task organization units not listed above continue current missions.

(2) Current USARYIS/IX Corps SOP's, operations plans, command programs and administrative instructions remain in effect, unless specifically changed.
